Early Ford V-8 Club meeting was called to order at 4:00 pm at Vintage Ford

Guest was John Crawford who owns a 50 Tudor that he would like to chop.

Minutes are old news by now. Treasurer says we are in good shape.

New business is the upcoming car show at Red Hawk Casino. Be there early.

ARC student recipient of one of our scholarships Steve Ada was present. His emphasis is on auto analysis and diesel technology.

Dave Petersen had the badges and are they good looking!

Steve Walker says the State Fair car show deal is on again this year. Pay for the car and however many people you can stuff in it get in for free!

The meeting adjourned at 4:12 pm a new world record for succinct meetings!

Respectfully Submitted, Steve Wahab

Board of Directors Meeting

1940 Ford Deluxe Station Wagon

Lloyd Thurston and his friend Wade Dowdell were invited to a large car show and picnic held in Gardnerville, Nevada. Lloyd's son Matthew has been living in Gardnerville recently. The invitation came from Matthew and an Early V-8 car friend, Charlie Case of Gardnerville. Matthew has been working for some time on restoring Lloyd and Matthew's 1940 Ford Deluxe Station Wagon. Work on the wagon is now complete and ready for shows in upcoming events.

Transportation for the above event was provided by Wade's fairly new Ford sedan which ran nicely over the Kingsbury Grade from Nevada over the mountains to Lake Tahoe and Lloyds' old home family stomping ground as a child.
